

MR. JUSTICE MARC ROSENBERG

Marc Rosenberg graduated with a B.A. from the University of Western Ontario in 1971 and an L.L.B. from Osgoode Hall Law School in 1974. He was called to the Bar of Ontario in 1976 and practiced almost exclusively criminal law with Edward L. Greenspan until 1995 when he took a leave of absence from the firm Greenspan, Rosenberg and Buhr and joined the Ministry of the Attorney General as Assistant Deputy Attorney General, Public Law and Policy Division and the Civil Law Division. In December 1995, Marc Rosenberg was appointed to the Ontario Court of Appeal. He is a Judicial Associate with the National Judicial Institute. Justice Rosenberg has been a member of the Board of Directors of the Justice Studies Center of the Americas since 2008.

He taught Evidence, Advanced Evidence, and Administration of Criminal Justice: The Role of the Attorney General, at Osgoode Hall Law School in Toronto, Ontario. He was Head of Section in Criminal Procedure for the Law Society of Upper Canada, Bar Admission Course. He served as a member of the Canadian Bar Association consultation group to the Law Reform Commission of Canada from 1982 to 1992. He was consultant to the Law Reform Commission on Electronic Surveillance leading to publication of Working Paper #47 in 1986 and consultant to the Commission on Powers of the Attorney General leading to the publication in 1990 of Working Paper #62 "Controlling Criminal Prosecutions: The Attorney General and the Crown Prosecutor". He was consultant to the Marshall Inquiry in 1989 with respect to the role of the Attorney General and the role of the Crown Prosecutor. He was a consultant to the Government of Ontario, Justice Review Project from 1991 to 1993. He was associate editor of Canadian Criminal Cases and Dominion Law Reports from 1978 to 1995. He is Co-editor of the Martin's Annual Criminal Code, Martin's Related Criminal Statutes and Martins Ontario Criminal Practice. He served as a Director of the Criminal Lawyers' Association from 1987 to 1991 and was actively involved in the Association's educational programmes for many years. He was a non-bencher member of the Legal Education Committee for the Law Society of Upper Canada from 1993 to 1995. He was a member of the faculty of the National Criminal Law Programme from 1979 to 1995. Justice Rosenberg has authored numerous articles on Criminal Law and Procedure, Evidence and the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms.

Justice Rosenberg is an organizer and frequent speaker at education conferences for judges and lawyers throughout Canada. He has spoken to judges, educators and government officials in other countries, including China, Vietnam, Israel, Ukraine, Russia, Great Britain, the countries of Latin America, the United States, Ethiopia, Australia and Albania. He has assisted with law reform and rule of law projects in some of these countries, in particular China and Vietnam, and was a consultant on a report prepared for the Federal Supreme Court of the Federal Democratic Republic of Ethiopia assessing judicial independence, and the transparency and accountability of the legal system in that country. He has also assisted in curriculum development through contacts with the judiciary and educators from other countries when they have attended in Canada and through work overseas. He has assisted with appellate advocacy training for prosecutors for the War Crimes Tribunals for Rwanda and the former Yugoslavia and the International Criminal Court.
